Sunny spells and, in west, a few showers.

Today:
A chilly but bright and for most a sunny start to the day. While Angus and Fife remain dry with sunny spells, cloudier conditions in the west bring a few showers to Perthshire and Stirlingshire. Freshening southwesterly winds. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Clear spells, with a few showers in the west, this evening. However increasing cloud will bring outbreaks of rain, occasionally heavy for a time, southeast overnight. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Thursday:
A rather cloudy start with, especially in west, patchy rain. Brighter for a time around the midday before increasing cloud brings outbreaks of rain northeast through the afternoon and evening. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Rather cloudy Friday with outbreaks of rain. Then a mostly cloudy weekend with patchy light rain and drizzle and extensive hill fog, best of any brighter spells in west.
